

The Daily Courant.

Monday, December 18 1704.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 11.

Rome, November 22.

THE 18th a Congregation was held, in the Pope's Presence, to examine into the Life and Manners of the fam'd Andrew of Avelino and Catherine of Bologna, who have for some time been propos'd to be canoniz'd: But the Result of that Examination is not yet made publick. Signior Maroborino, one of the Commissioners deputed by the Congregation, stild the Congregation of Good Government, to visit the Fiefs of the Ecclesiastical State, and report in what manner the Possessors of those Fiefs treat their Vassals, arriving some days since at Palliano, the Governour forbad him Entrance, caus'd the Gates of the Town to be shut, and signified to him by the chief of his Sbirries, in the Name of the Constable Colonna, to whom that Place belongs, that it was a Fief under the Protection of the King of Spain, and that he must address himself to the Viceroy of Naples, if he had any thing to offer against the Constable Colonna his Master. This has extreamly incens'd the Pope against the Constable; but Cardinal Pamphilio interposes his good Offices to make up the Matter. 'Tis talk'd however, that the Pope is determin'd to have his Will obey'd, and that he will speedily issue a new Bull, to subject absolutely the Fiefs of the Church to the Congregation of Good Government, and to resume all Power from the Possessors of them, that for the future they may not oppress their Vassals as they have done hitherto.

Rome, Nov. 29. On Sunday the 23d instant the Pope held a publick Chappel in the Quirinal Palace, accompanied by all the Cardinals that were in this City; And it being the day on which he entred into the 5th Year of his Pontificate, Cardinal Acciajoli Subdean of the Sacred College, complimented him thereupon in the Name of that College, after Divine Service; And the Pope return'd him a very obliging Answer. In the Afternoon, his Holiness went in great State to the Church of St. Clement, whose Name he bears, attended by a great Number of Prelates and Persons of Quality, the Cardinals Ottononi and Pignatelli being in his Coach with him. 'Tis reported that the Difference mention'd in our former to have happen'd between this Court and the Constable Colonna, is amicably adjusted by the Mediation of several Cardinals and other Persons of Quality. The Pope has resolv'd to remove in a few days from the Quirinal Palace to the Vatican, and to pass the Winter there: His Holiness holds frequent Congregations upon the present Circumstances of the Affairs of Europe, and 'tis talk'd that being apprehensive the Continuation of the War will be prejudicial in many Respects to the Holy See, he designs to issue plenary Indulgences, to be obtain'd by all those that shall pray to God to reestablish Peace between the Christian Princes. An Englishman, a Native of Kent, who has been in several Countries to shew his extraordinary Strength, lately arriv'd here, and t'other day gave a Proof of his Strength by lifting from the Ground a Stone of 2000 Weight, and drinking a Glass of Wine before he set it down again; to the great Admiration of the Duke d'Uzeda Ambassador of Spain, and divers other Spectators. The Consultations of the Holy Office, upon the Methods used by the Jesuites in Converting the Chinese to Christianity, [They are charg'd, in divers Instances, with blending the Doctrine of Christ with that of Confucius, the easier to draw in the Chinese to be baptiz'd.] those Consultations, I say, are ended, by a Resolution taken to send new Commissions to the East-Indies, the Tenour of which Commissions is not yet publickly known: But 'tis generally presum'd the Holy Office will let this Matter rest where it does, till they have receiv'd more certain and particular Information of the Facts charg'd upon the Jesuites. This Delay of the Holy Office to pronounce a decisive Judgment on the Affair in Question, is suppos'd to have been procur'd by the artful Sollicitations of the industrious Jesuites.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 18.

Vienna, Dec. 6. They write from Gran the 2d of this Month, that Captain Nywin having the day before pass'd the Danube, with a Detachment of 500 Men of the Garrison of Gran and 2 pieces of Cannon, to attack some Troops of the Malecontents that had begun to build a new Fort at Kinnal a League from Gran, Collonel Bothian who commanded those Malecontents, advanc'd to meet him; they fought, but the Malecontents were defeated, 50 of them being kill'd on the Place, and several taken Prisoners, together with 2 Colours, 6 Barrels of Powder, 2 Barrels of Musquet Bullets, some Waggon loaded with Provisions and Baggage, and Collonel Bothian's Papers, among which are some that afford great Light into the Designs of the Malecontents. We have also receiv'd confirm'd Advice, that Count Capoli is advanc'd into the Neighbourhood of Arath with a Body of 6000 Rebels, to receive and convoy a great Sum of Money remitted by the French King to Prince Ragotski; but these Advices assure us the Money is not yet arriv'd at Temiswaer from Constantinople, and that the Bassa of Temiswaer has declar'd he will not let it pass through that Place, without a positive Order from the Grand Signior.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 16.

They write from Paris the 12th of December, that a Gentleman who came thither very lately in Quality of Envoy from Prince Ragotski, having had a long Conference with one of the Ministers of State, assur'd him that the Prince his Master had above 6000 Men of regular Troops, and that upon occasion he could draw into the Field more than 60000 Men of the Militia; adding that he wanted nothing but Money, for which he could have recourse no whither but to the King of France, and therefore hoped his Majesty would please to make frequent and large Remittances to him, to enable him to carry on a War that makes so powerful a Diversion in his Majesty's Favour. Basil, Basil, Dec. 11. In the Diet held t'other day at Arau by the Deputies of the Protestant Cantons, they resolv'd to maintain the Inhabitants of Tockenbourg in their ancient Rights and Privileges, against the Attempts of the Abbot of St. Gall; and at the same time to admonish those Inhabitants, so to demean themselves for the future, that that Abbot may have no Cause to complain of their Want of due Respect for him. It was resolv'd in that Diet likewise, that the Canton of Zurich shall call a General Diet of the whole Helvetic Body, to meet in the beginning of January, in order to bring that Affair to a Conclusion. The Catholick Cantons are met at Lucerne, to consult by what Means the Difference risen between the Cantons of Vry, Schwitz, and Underwald, on one part, and the Government of Milan on the other, touching a Lordship call'd Bellinz may be compos'd. The Regents of Zurich have caus'd exemplary Punishment to be inflicted on several Horse-Couters, for breaking their last Orders relating to the buying and selling of Horses; and their Lordships have also caus'd 20 Horses that some Persons endeavour'd to carry to Hunningham through the Territory of Zurich to be seiz'd.

Leiden, Dec. 16. Letters from Lige dated the 11th of this Month advise, that Count Zinzendorf the Emperor's Minister, was expected there daily; having summon'd the Estates of the Dutchy of Limbourg, to meet him in that City, to deliberate upon certain Proposals he has to make to them in the Name of King Charles the Third of Spain, whom they acknowledg'd for their rightful Sovereign some Months ago.
